Researcher, Strategic Studies Unit | 2019–Present Arab Center for Research and Policy Studies (ACRPS), Doha

Honorary Research Fellow | 2019–Present Strategy and Security Institute, University of Exeter, UK

2. RESEARCH PROFILE

My research sits at the intersection of international politics and security, organised around three core pillars:

1. Intelligence and Security Institutions: Historical and institutional analysis of intelligence and security apparatuses.
2. Discursive Security and Political Authority: Securitisation and designation practices through which states define legitimacy and permissible action.
3. Technology, Security, and State Power: Governance of AI, cyber power, and digital sovereignty, with a focus on how small and medium states adopt digital offset strategies.
